Preferred Stockholders of B. & + O. Claim Precedence for Their Holdings.

CAUSES THAT LED TO DISASTER.

Pertinent Circular to the Public from a Firm Representing Holders of Preferred Securities.

In all propability there will be a legal fight between the holders of the preferred stock of the Baltimore % Ohio Railroad Company and the holders of the various bonds as to the priority of claims upon the property. This is foreshadowed in a circular issued by the banking firm of Ham-bleton % Co., of Baltimore, which is known to be the representative of the preferred stockholders, consisting mainly of individuals and estates in Baltimore and therefore, to be understood that we do not express any opinion as to the priority of liens upon the Baltimore & Ohio, but give them as they are supposed to exist. It is claimed by the holders of the Baltimore & Ohio first preferred stock that this stock is a first lien upon the property, prior even to the mortgages. This opinion and claim is based upon the wording and provision of the certificate, and upon a long line of legal opinions affirming the claim. The wording of the certificate relating to this point is as follows:

"The owner of this stock is entitled to a perpetual dividend of 6 per cent per annum, and to more, upon the said shares, payable out of the gross receipts of the said company, under the terms of the certificate, and upon a first preferred stock that this stock is entitled to a perpetual dividend of 6 per cent per annum, and the more, upon the said shares, payable out of the gross receipts of the said company, under the terms of the certificate receipts of the said company, under the terms of the certificate receipts of the said company, under the terms of the certificate of the said company, under the terms of the certificate of the said company, under the terms of the certificate of the said company, under the terms of the certificate of the said company, under the terms of the certificate of the said company, under the terms of the certificate of the said company, under the terms of the certificate of the said company, under the terms of the certificate of the said company, under the terms of the certificate of the certifi

"The placing of the Baltimore & Ohio Raifroad Company in the hands of receivers is not only a most regrettable incident, but at international misfortune. However, we do not by any means take a hopeless view of the situation. The causes which led the Baltimore & Ohio Company lato the hands of receivers and the singdow of bankruptey art many and patent. It would be neither necessary nor profitable to recount the many mistakes of judgment made, such as the refusal to interchange tickess with the Philadelphia. Wilmington & Baltimore and the Northern Central Railway companies and to cheek bagagge through the city, which necessitated the building of the Baltimore & Potomac Railroad and tunnels, the sale of the Virginia Midland Railroad to the Richmond & Danville Company, and the refusal to lease the Atlanta & Charlotte when offered on favorable terms; the extension of the Baltimore & Ohio bonds and tunnel through Baltimore; the one manngement, which originated with John W. Garrett and extended down to a recent period, and the absence of adequate and efficient means for raising new capital. That is of the past and not worth to a recent period, and the absence of adequate and efficient means for raising new capital. While the statements of the Baltimore & Ohio Company have been strained to show Onlo Company have been strained to show the best results, we believe that when the accounts are laft bare there will be found no serious discrepancies, and no such rottenness as was displayed in Atchison and Reading. The Baitimore & Ohio road, no doubt, needs to have expended upon it and its equipment very large amounts, and it is probable that security holders will be called upon to make sacrifices. We believe it is the hope and intention of the gentlemen who have under advisement the rehabilitation of the property to, if possible, reorganize the property without foreclosure.
